HIT THE ROAD

CAN'T MISS GETAWAYS

We bunked for the night at Lone Star Court in the Domain, a dog-friendly property with convenient parking, the better to schlep in all the dog gear. Rooms open to a large outdoor courtyard and native landscaping, both of which make it easy for dogs to answer the call of nature. Inside, plenty of space and distressed concrete floors had us feeling at ease. We grabbed a table on the patio of the on-site restaurant, the Water Trough, and enjoyed live music spilling out of the large overhead doors. I may have slipped Max a bite or two from my generous brisket plate.
